Membership dues and charges must be secured by a current, major credit card issued in the name of the Member or Designee. Children with Immediate Family Privileges who are to have charge privileges must be specifically listed on this Information Form as having charge privileges. If any account is delinquent (greater than 60 days past due), the credit card will be charged without notice. The failure of the credit card company to honor a charge will be grounds for suspension and/or forfeiture of Club privileges in addition to collection and/or legal fees.
